Course fees

To allow as many people to start training during these exceptional times, the course fee has been split into two separate payments.

When you start the course and begin your online learning, you will only have to pay £100.

Once you have finished all the theory, you can book your practical session and make your final payment of £250. The final payment may be reduced to £100 if you are part of a Swim England Club and the IoS has a Club Offer course available.

How to Enrol:
